The Leisure Seeker

The Leisure Seeker is a consoling, teary/funny road trip comedy about an ageing couple who realize their days – of living independently, at least – are numbered.

John is slipping further into the fog of Alzheimer’s with every passing week, while Ella is awaiting some kind of hospital treatment, which her bobbed wig suggests can be nothing good. Rather than go along with the plans of their adult children (Christian McKay and Janel Moloney), the Spencers treat themselves to one last driving holiday together – a pilgrimage to the house in Key West occupied by Ernest Hemingway during nine of his most creatively fruitful years.

Bytowne Cinema - 325 Rideau St. (between King Edward & Nelson)

Admission: $12 (Members $8) - Annual Membership: $6 Senior; $12 General

Join us as we explore our faith through films on a bi-monthly basis. Our next film is on Monday, February 5th @ 6:55 pm at the Bytowne Cinema and is The Leisure Seeker starring Donald Sutherland and Helen Mirren. We buy our own tickets from the box office, join the queue, and find our own seats inside. After the film, we meet outside the cinema and move to a nearby coffee shop for fellowship and discussion. Parking is available on-street or in the Loblaws garage ($3 after 6 pm). For more information, please see David Wray.
