

Messy Church

Saturday, October 14, 5pm-7pm

Messy Church was started in England by Lucy Moore at her church in Cowplain near Portsmouth in 2004 as a way of being 'church' for families, especially for those not part of a church.

The first Messy Church in Canada was launched in April 2007 at St. George's Georgetown ON and quickly followed by others across the country. Messy Churches are found across Canada in a wide range of denominations in urban and rural communities, all focussed on building a Christ-centred community that is welcoming and great fun!
